Kennard — Dale High School
Fawn Grove, Pennsylvania
1969 — 1970

People

"No man is an island" — and throughout each person's passage through KD he relates to, depends on, and loves other people. The memories of Kennard-Dale are nothing but shadows of these transient, shared moments with them. Their activities, ages, sizes, and shapes are all diverse. But they are all people, unique yet commonly bonded. We of the '70 Fawn present a senior's-eye-view of Kennard-Dale people.

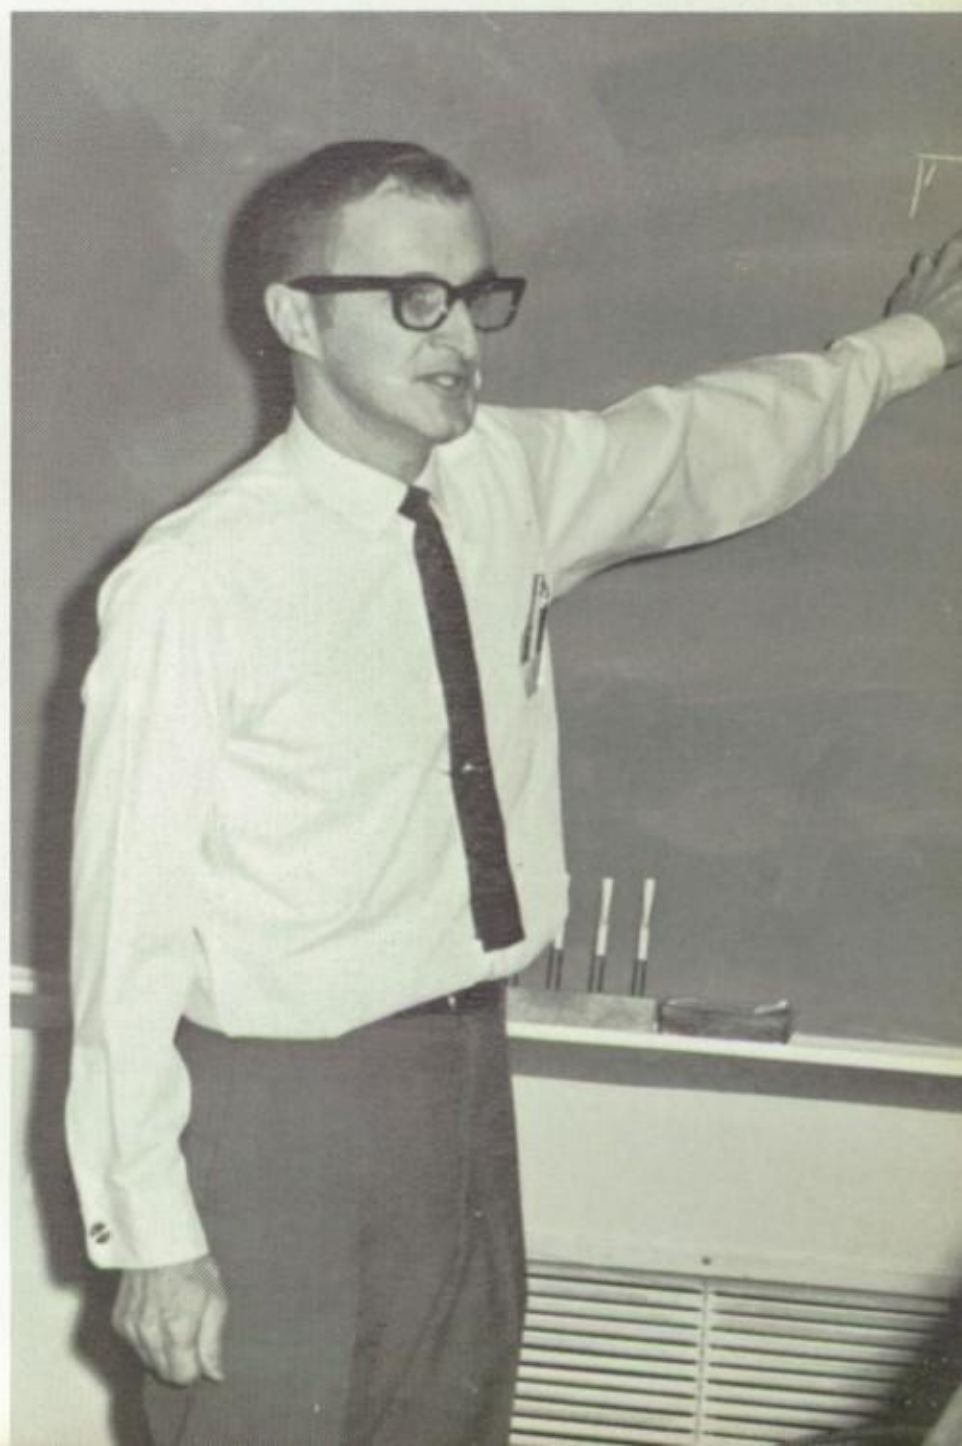

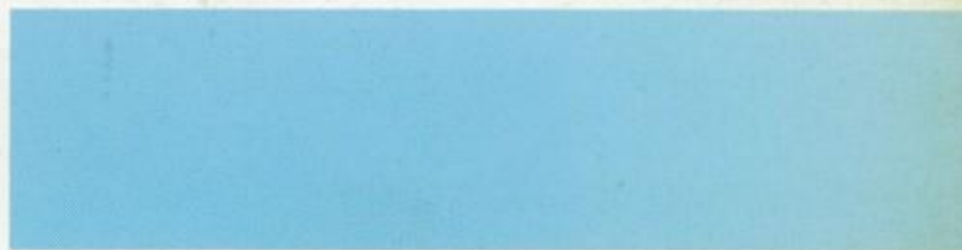

We of the 1970 Fawn Staff proudly dedicate the '70 Fawn to a sincere and dedicated member of the Kennard-Dale faculty. He is a man who has freely given time, effort, patience, and understanding to those many students who have passed through Kennard-Dale's portals, Mr. Donald Gingrich.

In addition to his teaching duties, Mr. Gingrich prepares the Junior Chorus and Orchestra for the Spring Concert. He also rehearses the Senior Chorus for the Christmas Concert and assembly, the Senior Chorus Concert, and numbers for graduation. He never fails to support each phase of Kennard-Dale life and is never too busy to lend a helping hand or to give an encouraging word.

We sincerely hope that the '70 Fawn reflects the ideals that have been set forth so faithfully by this year's dedication, Mr. Donald Gingrich.

Class History

In arriving at Kennard-Dale, we were a bunch of scared little kids, afraid of becoming lost, in what seemed to us, this monumentous building. However, we soon achieved the reputation, as all seventh graders do, of being loudmouthed, pushy little brats who always used the wrong stairway. We shall never forget the days at "good old K-D", from the time when we got our first gym suits to being fitted for caps and gowns. Let us look back at our golden years at this wonderful institution.

In eighth grade, we were beginning to get used to the school, the personalities of the faculty and administration, and other aspects of school life, like discovering that we do have a school nurse, somewhere. We had a fun-filled class trip to Gettysburg, although it did rain. Our record hop was entitled "Swing into Spring".

After we had chosen our future courses of study, we moved on to the ninth grade. This was the final year of our compulsory Fine Arts education and it was also the beginning of some hard work and serious study towards specific goals. This was also the year our class went to Harrisburg on our class trip.

Who will ever forget the year we finally were allowed to go to the store. Yes, our sophomore year. That was also the year we sponsored our dance, "Anything Goes" with the Chaparrals. It was a lovely day for our trip to the General Motors plant and the Hagley Museum.

By the time our junior year came around, we pretty well knew the ropes. We must have taken umpteen semester exams by then and suddenly, the guidance office became a place to look for college catalogs and not just a place to hook classes. Our class visited the city of Washington for our annual trip. In the spring we had the pleasure to present our play, "The Madwoman of Chaillot", directed by Miss Gail Spory with Jean Grove as the "Madwoman". Under the guidance of our class advisors, Mr. Keesey and Miss Waltemeyer, we had the mammoth job of planning and executing an annual phenomena called a Prom. Ours was entitled "Rhapsody in Blue".

Again, in our senior year we had the fun and the work of presenting another play. It was entitled "Once in a Lifetime" with Mary Anderson, Steve Krechmer, and Dave Thompson. It was again produced and directed by Miss Gail Spory. In the tinkley atmosphere of "Silver Bells" we danced to the Fabulous Monarches at our Christmas Dance.

It is now our last year in the old halls of concrete and metal lockers. We have all shared many, many memories that I am sure no one will ever forget. As we prepare for the future, we can look back on our high school days as, perhaps, some of the best of our lives.

PEACE,

Mary Ann Wilson, historian

To those many special people who have helped to make this yearbook
a reality, we say

THANKS

A special note of gratitude to:

Our advertisers and patrons;
Mr. Hunt, our advisor;
Henry M. Blatner, our professional photographer;
The Gummel's for our free meal;
And the entire administration and faculty.

Frankie
you really nice kid. Remember
all the fun we've had at that - Stay and packing house! You are as sweet as you are you'll go far.

Frankie

Frankie,

To a very cute and
sweet guy, in my study
in 212. Always REMEMBER all the fun times with the Kids & Mrs. Allen.

May you always find success
and happiness in your future
life. "God Bless You!"

A. F. A.

LINDA

Frank,
 is a real boy
 that I have known
 for a real long time
 but a nice as you are.
 I try to go wrong in never try to go wrong in your life. Safe case of the girls and take care of that special one.
 I hope that you will always remember me as a friend. Remember all of the good times
 I hope that you will always have very many, many happy times now and in the future.
 Take care of yourself and family.
 Bless you always.
 P.F.P. remains.

Frankie,
 To a guy I don't know to well but
 what I do know
 I like a lot. Stay nice like you
 are and you will go far. Keep the but always
 kind
